Retirement Policy

The Dell supports employees who wish to retire or those that wish to continue beyond aged 65 years. At state retirement age staff will be entitled to complete the school term during which their birthday falls. Staff whose birthday falls during a half term holiday will be able to work to the end of the full term.

Staff whose birthday falls during a holiday between terms will be able to work to the end of that holiday. Where staff remain in good health and are fit and active The Dell is willing to consider employment above the state retirement age
