Monday 12th February

"The Queen of Hearts, she made some tarts..." today we will be starting off the week by making 'jewellery, heart shaped biscuits' to take home, or eat for snack! Also, as Valentine's Day approaches, making some 3-D cards, for friends & family, and finally some lovely Heart cushions!

Tuesday 13th February

As Chinese New Year begins on Friday, the children will today be painting, decorating and creating their own dragon heads from large cardboard boxes and large, red sheets. They can then bring these to life, as we negotiate obstacle courses (team games = prizes!!) and practice Chinese Dragon dances in the afternoon!!

Wednesday 14th February

Children can paint their 'glass-art' this morning creating beautiful sun-catchers to hang at the windows. For tea this afternoon, we shall mostly be partaking' in a sumptuous high-tea, which includes home-made scones and delicious lemonade made earlier on in the afternoon. A 'Valentines Disco' ends the afternoon's soiree!! (Bring your party clothes!)

Thursday 15th February

Back to the Chinese New Year, we will look at where China is in the world, attempt a few words in Mandarin, write our names in Chinese writing and decorate a Chinese Dragon plate.

Friday 16th February

As today we celebrate Chinese New Year, we look forward to practising our ninja skills with paper sword flikers - agility and balance are essential!! An outside visit to enhance our dance skills has also been planned for today...and finally, we can have a go at using chop-sticks, as our menu today includes noodles!!!

To book your child's places please use the online booking form on our website - www.thedell.org.uk. Late bookings can be taken (if spaces) by requesting a booking form from the managers at Abel Smith & Morgans, however, late bookings will be slightly more expensive.
