Wednesday 2nd January

Welcome in 2019 with some home made Calendars and Magic Wishing Stars, build your very own special container to keep all of your wishes for the year ahead, then open it next year to see how many came true.

Bake and decorate some yummy star gingerbread to enjoy at home.
Make some snowy playdough to enjoy playing with this week.

Thursday 3rd January—Shivering science

Enjoy some super messy science with erupting snow balls, make your own snow balls and then watch as they fizz from the inside out to make some cold snow for messy play and mark making. Pick a partner and create a wonderful ice painting, let the ice cubes melt as you co-ordinate movements to reveal the colours.

Warm up with some marshmallow snowmen and hot chocolate for pudding.

Friday 4th January—Arctic Adventure

Have a look at some animals who live in cold weather, with a quick quiz. DO you recognise any of them in today's crafts? Create your own Penguin pal using bottles and felt and Sew your own polar bear hanger to hang at home.

Enjoy the perfect winter warming treat with some yummy home-made soup for tea.

Monday 7th January—INSET DAY—Both Schools

Design some awesome socks to keep your feet warm this winter. Get ready to make your room into your own little homework haven with some new door hangers and door signs. Finish off the holidays with some fab hall games including Islands, musical statues and

points to remember:

- Bring packed lunch in everyday, no fizzy drinks or nut products (including chocolate spreads and cereal bars)
- Please come to main reception and ring "The Dell Bell" for entry.
- Please bring your child in to the club, don't let them walk in on their own, they need to be signed in and out.
- Please bring with you suitable comfy clothing that you don't mind getting messy.
- If your child is being collected by someone we do not know, please set up a password before you leave.
- In wet weather please ensure children have coats and wellies for outdoor play.

Thank you
